

Why nurses and midwives must be innovation leaders

Hosted by RCN Oxfordshire Branch, RCN Research Society and The iCrowd

Key Points

- Q Innovation is part of our nursing and midwifery practice
- Q It helps improve care efficiency and the patient experience
- Q What is frustrating you? What ideas do you have?
- \mathcal{Q} We can all be facilitators of innovation whatever our expertise
- Q We can learn from failures
- Q We all have a role in leadership, supporting ideas and removing barriers
- Innovation has been embraced in this time of crisis
- We need to recognise our value in innovation within nursing and midwifery if we want to elevate our role in the public arena
- \bigcirc We can all be innovators: we can be champions for each other
