- This is our fifth Branch Newsletter to update you about what has happened recently and what is planned over the next few months
- What we have done
- 21st June 2022 19:00 – Feedback from Congress 2022 – lovely to hear from the members that we had attending Congress 2022 (Nursing's Biggest Conference).
- Lunch and Learn – managing the menopause – 29th September at St Michael's Hospice. Great session from Ruth Bailey – thank you
- 6th October 2022 – Learning Event and Branch AGM - Had a great time with a variety of speakers covering topics including support for workplace stress, update on care of HIV patients, care of refugees, what the library and archive service can offer, update from Jeremy Benton (council member)

Thanks to those members who have engaged with the Ballot - remember the RCN is member led so we need you.
